

ASX Release

1 September 2009

Appointment of new Managing Director

The Board of ComTel is pleased to announce the appointment of Chris Meehan as the Company's new Managing Director and CEO effective today. Mr. Meehan will replace David Sweet who will transition into the role of non-executive Director of ComTel whilst also consulting to the Company.

Since September 2008 Mr. Meehan has been the COO of ComTel's online media division, Empowered Communications, which achieved revenue growth of 28% last financial year. Mr. Meehan was previously the CEO of ASX-listed online travel company travel.com.au Limited, and General Manager of domain.com.au.

Chairman Phil Pryke commented that Mr. Meehan's appointment supports the Company's strategic direction to strengthen its role in the online media and mobile space.

"Chris has demonstrated he can grow profitable online businesses. He has the management and online experience to shape our business and take advantage of the opportunities emerging in both the online and mobile area."

Mr Pryke said that he was pleased Mr. Sweet has agreed to remain on the Board and consult to the Company on strategy and key projects.

"The Board would like to thank Mr. Sweet for his leadership and vision in his three and a half years as CEO and MD. In that time he has transformed the Company from significant EBITDA losses, to EBITDA profits. He established a strong team and the foundations to continue to achieve financial growth and success."
